Non-Profit Consulting

Is your non-profit due for a check-up?

An organizational assessment is like a full-body physical for your non-profit. It will:

- Provide a detailed, objective assessment of your organization's ability to deliver upon its mission effectively and efficiently.
- Identify areas that need attention.
- Provide recommendations to improve performance, and align strategies with operational plans, systems and policies.
- Formulate a plan for systemic improvement.
